Lecture #17: Proofs of Undecidability — Examples II
Questions for Review

1. Describe something about the solution for the problem, in the lecture presentation, that was somewhat different than previous examples (that were approximately as difficult as problems that might appear on an assignment).

   This should be something that might help you find easier way to solve problems like this than you would otherwise consider.